

SECRET BALLOT WILL BE TAKEN BY SINN FEIN

Dail Eireann Will Vote On Peace Treaty It Is Reported.

ARE CONFIDENT

Believe Pact Will Be Ratified Without Serious Trouble.

Dublin, Dec. 17.—From a trustworthy source it was learned today that a secret vote would be taken on the Irish peace treaty by Dail Eireann this afternoon.

It was said that the decision to vote secretly was based upon desire to avoid acrimony in the open session that will be held on Monday.

Followers of Michael Collins, commander in chief of the Irish republican army and Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein, said they were confident that the pact would be ratified.

Whether or not Eamonn DeValera has succeeded in forcing any amendments upon Dail Eireann was not known. It was believed that in view of the fact that the British parliament approved the treaty in its original form Dail would not make any revisions if it was decided to ratify.

Three courses are open:

- 1.—Ratification.
- 2.—Rejection.
- 3.—Submission to a general referendum.

The Sinn Fein cabinet issued a statement saying that attacks by the British really caused the disorders in Ulster.

"The outbreaks were not the work of republicans," said the statement. "The situation strongly condemns Ulster violence and says that an investigation is being made."

JOBLESS REDUCED BY MILLION AND HALF SAYS HOOVER

Washington, Dec. 17.—Unemployment throughout the country has been greatly relieved as a result of the national conference on unemployment called by President Harding, according to a report issued last night by Secretary Hoover.

At the time of the conference it was estimated that 3,300,000 persons were out of work, the report said, while Mr. Hoover believes that 1,500,000 and perhaps 2,000,000 men and women are employed now who would be out of jobs were it not for the work of the conference.

Concrete results already apparent from the conference, Mr. Hoover said included the focusing of public opinion for the first time in American history upon unemployment, organization of municipal relief committees on a nation-wide scale, congressional action through appropriations and inauguration of public works and the assumption by industry of a share of its responsibility to the unemployed.

CHICAGO UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR OUSTED

Chicago, Dec. 17.—Friends of General Louis Wendt, Harvard graduate and assistant professor of chemistry at the University of Chicago, whose resignation was accepted by the university after charges that he was a "peeping Tom" had been made came to his defense today. Prof. Wendt is said to have been discovered on the roof of a shed in the rear of Kenwood hall, a vantage point that gave him a view of a bathroom window in the girls' dormitory.

According to Prof. Wendt's associates involved in his act they he will be removed soon to a sanatorium where he is suffering from a relapse of a severe attack of influenza and tonsillitis and "was not himself."

Professor Wendt is confined in a hospital today and it is expected that he will be removed soon to a sanatorium.

C. OF C. BODIES WILL AID IN CAMPAIGN

Columbus, Dec. 17.—Resolutions pledging aid in a movement to create favorable public sentiment were adopted by secretaries of various Ohio chambers of commerce, in session here, after listening to addresses by State Director of Welfare Macayal and E. C. Shaw, Akron, former chairman of the erstwhile state board of administration who advocated reforming treatment of the state's wards.

The speakers urged segregation of feeble minded, better methods for prevention and cure of insanity, constructive treatment of offenders, development of the bureau of juvenile research, and economy in construction of state institutions.

Kansas Coal Field Trouble Results In Arrest of Several Leaders of Striking Miners and Arm of Women—Situation Quiet on Surface.

INVESTIGATE DEATH OF MAN IN HOTEL ROOM IN ARIZONA

Woman in Case Declares She is Cousin of Clara Smith Hamon.

Globe, Ariz., Dec. 17.—Police authorities will endeavor today to obtain a detailed statement from Miss Alma Smith with reference to the shooting of Henry L. Christensen, an automobile dealer, who was found dead in Miss Smith's room in a local hotel. Miss Smith was seriously wounded and early today had been unable to give her version of the affair.

According to the police Miss Smith claims to be a cousin of Clara Smith Hamon, who was tried and acquitted several months ago in Oklahoma for the murder of Jake L. Hamon, millionaire oil man, and politician.

Christensen who was married was arrested recently on Mann act charges preferred by Miss Smith. He was subsequently released. The police believe that Christensen came to Miss Smith's room for a "final meeting" and that the meeting culminated in the fatal shooting. When hotel attaches forced the door of the room, Christensen was dead and Miss Smith found lying on the floor, a revolver at her side.

JURY SCHEDULED TO GET SHOOTING CASE ON SATURDAY

Will Decide Fate of Men Accused in Courts of West Virginia.

Welch, W. Va., Dec. 17.—The jury will get the case against C. E. Lively, Buster Pence and William Walters for the shooting of Ed. Chambers on August 1, late today.

Court opened this morning with the sur-rebuttal of the defense who placed Walter C. Mitchell, former chief of police Welch on the stand for several questions.

The state was to place one more witness on the stand. He is J. S. Farrell from Matewan.

Late yesterday C. E. Lively took the stand in his own defense. Self defense was his plea for the shooting. He testified he had seen Jim Kirkpatrick on the train coming up from Slaeger, on the morning of Aug. 1, but had not seen Sid Hatfield or Ed. Chambers or either of their wives. He saw them when they left the train at Welch, he said. He stated that he saw them in a restaurant at breakfast time. He told the jury he "most certainly was not following them."

TO GIVE SMALL DECISION SOON

Waukegan, Ill., Dec. 17.—Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, Grant Park, Ill., banker will know before Christmas whether they must stand trial on the indictments charging them with embezzlement of state funds conspiracy and operating a confidence game.

The state completed its arguments in opposition to the defense motion to quash the indictments. Today C. C. LeForge, chief of council for the governor will complete his reply and Judge Claire C. Edwards Sunday will begin consideration of his decision. The court has previously indicated that if he upholds any part of the charges he will set the case for trial starting January 3.

BELIEVE STORY OF BOMB BLAST ARREST TRUE

Government Police Check Up On Story of Suspect In Warsaw.

CONFESSION MADE

Washington, Dec. 17.—The arrest of Wolfe Lindenfeld, alias William Linde, will clear up the Wall street bomb explosion mystery, William J. Burns, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice declared this afternoon.

Lindenfeld will be brought back to the United States immediately and arrests of other suspects in Europe are expected shortly, Burns said. There also may be some arrests made in the United States.

Burns said that Lindenfeld is the "key" to the Wall street explosion mystery. The government has known for a long time that Lindenfeld possessed information concerning the explosion, Burns said but it was not until the arrest in Warsaw that the department of justice felt sure of its ground.

The announcement of Lindenfeld's arrest at Warsaw was "premature" Burns said and he regretted that the "story was exploded" before the government had an opportunity to arrest others now under surveillance. Burns fears that the disclosures may prevent the apprehension of other suspects. Until last night those who are supposed to have been principals in the crime were under the closest watch of government agents.

The department of justice has known Lindenfeld's movements ever since the Wall street explosion, Burns said. The department set a trap into which Lindenfeld finally walked. As a bait it held forth to him a reward of $50,000 which originally was offered by the Burns detective agency, employed by Wall street bankers.

Lindenfeld formerly was attached to the New York police department, according to Burns.

When the Wall street explosion occurred, a detective agency secured the services of Lindenfeld as an operative because of Lindenfeld's interest into the activities of alleged extremist activities in the United States.

Lindenfeld was a member of the Third Internationale of Moscow and was paid a large salary by communist organization for his work in the United States and was in such close touch with its propaganda plans, that he knew intimately practically all individuals of communist persuasion in the United States.

W. F. Fullam Defends Submersible as Weapon of War

Declaring It To Be Instrument To Equalize Control of Sea—Says it May Prevent Strife.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The attention of the world has been focussed on the submarine. Mr. Balfour frankly admits that the small coast defense submarine of short cruising radius is a weapon of defense for weak nations against the aggression of the strong upon the sea, he also recognizes the great offensive power of the long range cruising submarine in naval warfare.

It is plain that the great maritime nations with the exception of the United States, may look with favor upon Mr. Balfour's suggestion; they have reason to do so, and many good people of the world over, recalling German "frighthfulness" would heartily applaud the complete extinction of the submarine.

But we must avoid precipitate action. The legitimate uses of the submarine must not be denied. The charges against it have been exaggerated. It is not more inhuman than many other weapons upon which no restrictions are placed. International law can control the submarine within limits that the world will recognize as humane—as humane as any weapon that kills or wounds in wars.

We hear much of the "freedom of the seas" is it not desirable? Is it not righteous that the interests of all nations, great and small, weak and strong, shall be made secure upon the sea? No one nation or combination of nations should be permitted to dominate the oceans and to crush the weak. If all nations, large and small, are permitted to use submarines no one naval power can dominate the sea. The greatest navy in the world cannot rule the oceans and it is not too much to say that no combination of navies can do it. Te German u-boats fought the navies of the world and nearly won the world war under conditions most disadvantageous to them.

The more we study this subject, the more clearly it appears that the submarine, so far from being a weapon to be condemned, is one to be exalted. Great nations fear it; why? Because it stands squarely in the way of aggression on the sea. Thus, it may prevent war. A nation with a great merchant fleet dependent upon it for her life, may stop and think twice or thrice before she forces war upon a nation however weak. In which subject are the people of the world most interested just at present—in the command of the sea or in the "freedom of the seas"? Do you wish to aid the

Machine Guns Are Turned Against Rioters in Belfast

Belfast, Dec. 17.—Machine guns were turned upon rioters here early today during the heaviest outburst of disorders since the armistice became effective.

There was heavy firing in twenty widely separated parts of the city. A police lorry that was rushing to the scene of disorders was fired upon. The occupants turned machine guns upon the rioters.

The fusillade in the region of Newtownards road were especially heavy. One man was killed and ten others were wounded.

Reprisals were begun during the morning and two men were seriously wounded in exchanges of shots.

Unrest throughout the city is increasing.

SENATE TO PRESERVE SILENCE UNTIL AFTER THE HOLIDAYS

Debate On Treaties Arrived at By Disarmament Conference Will Be Started Sometime After First of Year—To Place All of Its Eggs in One Basket.

Washington, Dec. 17.—With the probable exception of a few "irreconcilables" the senate is to mark time and preserve silence with regard to the decisions of the disarmament conference until after the Christmas and New Years holidays.

Not until the conference ends, and the treaties evolved by it are submitted to the senate, will debate on them be resumed, according to the well laid plans announced by the republican and Democratic leaders.

As congress will adjourn Thursday until January 3rd, there will be little opportunity left for the "irreconcilables" to begin again attacking the conference decisions in the senate until after the beginning of the new year.

French statements may be issued and further comments made "on the side" by Senators who tarry here during the holidays, but the real verbal explosions are not to occur until the four power and other treaties are taken up by the senate following the arrival of 1922.

It is generally understood that the administration plan is to submit the four-power, naval ratio, Yap and China treaties to the senate together some time early in January. They are all expected to linger for a while in the senate foreign relations, probably until after the senate has acted finally on the Ford-Newberry election controversy.

The purpose of the administration to place all its eggs in one basket and to permit the senate to deal with all the treaties in their relation to one another and to all the results of the conference itself, is generally acceptable to Republican and Democratic senators alike. There has been a marked subsidence of enthusiasm among even Senators favorable to the four-powered pacts and the naval ratio agreement and senators most closely associated with the administration are among those who have become chary about committing themselves regarding any of the conference decisions.

The holiday adjournment of congress also means that the foreign debts refunding bill, the tariff and other important measures will go over until the new year.

SUBMARINE OF GREAT VALUE TO SMALL NATIONS DECLARES ADMIRAL, U. S. NAVY

SEVEN SAILORS ARE INJURED IN SMASH OF TWO VESSELS

Coast Liner and Destroyer Collide Off Jersey Shore Friday Night

New York, Dec. 17.—Seven injured sailors of the U. S. destroyer Graham were in the navy hospital in Brooklyn today following the collision between the destroyer and the coast liner Panaman, five miles off the Jersey coast, last evening. One of the sailors is in a serious condition. None of the 107 passengers on the Panaman was injured.

The Panaman arrived at quarantine this morning on her way to her pier.

The Graham, escorted by navy tugs and coast guard cutters, limped into the harbor at 8:50 this morning on her way to the navy yard. There was a hole in the side of the destroyer that extended above and below the water line.

WATSON TO PRODUCE ANOTHER LETTER

Washington, Dec. 17.—Senator "Tom" Watson, Democrat, announced today that he would insert in the record of the next meeting of the senate committee investigating his charges that American soldiers were illegally killed in France, a letter charging that over 200 soldiers were illegally hanged or clubbed to death by officers and never reported in France.

"I will offer this and similar letters by eye-witnesses, directly disproving the statement of the war department that only 11 soldiers were hanged in France," announced Watson.

"I will offer a letter from one man who was the eye-witness to four hangings at Cievres, where the war department says only one man was hanged."

Senator Watson produced a letter written by Arthur Q. Burlington, Fulton, Ky., but who said his home was in Detroit, Mich.

"How such an untruth as that only eleven American soldiers were hanged in France could be handed out to the American people, I do not understand," said Burlington, who then added his charge of over 200 soldiers being "hanged or clubbed to death."

FRENCH PLANS FOR BIG NAVY FROWNED UPON

Other Powers Will Tell Nation Demands Are Absurd.

CRITICISM SEVERE

Will Be "Morally Isolated" If Present Program Insisted Upon.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The five big powers of the Washington conference failed to settle the question of French naval ratio at a largely secret session in the Pan-American building today, and the matter was allowed to go over the week end for another meeting on Monday.

Washington, Dec. 17.—France will be plainly told by the other great powers of the Washington conference that her demand for ten new battleships, totalling 370,000 tons is absurdly excessive and cannot be entertained by the nations which already have pledged themselves to scrap half their existing navies and stop future building.

The telling will be accomplished in diplomatic language, but it will be none the less plain. It is inconceivable to the delegates from the United States, Great Britain and Japan that, at the very moment they are sacrificing their great naval establishments on the altar of world peace, France should be allowed to embark upon a great building program which she cannot afford economically and which would constitute a menace to European stability, and world peace.

The "moral isolation" of which Premier Briand spoke so feelingly in his eloquent address to the conference on the subject of land armaments bids fair to descend on France today if her representatives here persist in their startling eleven hour demand for new ships.

The French representatives will be informed that for them to persist in their request will mean the abrogation of the three-powered agreement concluded between the United States, Great Britain and Japan and the resultant failure of the primary aim of the Washington parley. On France will rest the onus of failure and the "moral isolation" which M. Briand feared will become an actuality.

It will be pointed out to them that Great Britain will not consent to scrap half her navy while her next door neighbor builds up a great fleet, even if the United States and Japan who are far distant, would consent.

Biting criticisms of France's unlooked for action was heard today on all sides. While the diplomatic courtesies and international amenities were conserved so far as public comment went, the delegates from other powers did not hesitate to express privately in strong terms their disapproval of the French demand.

"Not content with maintaining the greatest standing army in the world, France now wants the greatest navy as well," said one diplomat. "And all this she demands while she continually cries her poverty to the world. She justifies her great army by pointing at Germany. I suppose she will justify her demand for a great navy by pointing to the meanness of little Holland."

This was a fair sample of the caustic comments that prevailed in diplomatic quarters today as the committee of 15, which has to deal directly with the French request, went back into secret session at the Pan American building.

ACQUIT TREASURER OF DARKE COUNTY

Dan H. Brown, treasurer of Darke county, was acquitted of a charge of embezzling $136 of county funds, by a jury in common pleas court, Greenfield, Friday afternoon.

The jury only balloted once in reaching a verdict. Judge C. H. Kyle of this city, assisted the Darke County prosecuting attorney in the prosecution of the case which was quickly rushed through, after the prosecution had refused to call a number of witnesses subpoenaed, which would have drawn out the case.

BRITISH FIX THEIR EYES ON IRELAND

London, Dec. 17.—With parliament in recess, all eyes were today turned on Dublin to see what action Dail Eireann would take upon the Irish peace treaty. It was believed that the action of the British parliament in ratifying the treaty yesterday would have some effect upon the members of the Sinn Fein legislature. Premier Lloyd George won a comparatively easy victory in having the pact approved by both branches of parliament. A recess was taken until Monday because of the possibility that action upon the treaty by Dail Eireann might make further measures necessary by parliament.

They want the phonograph that's First with the Hits

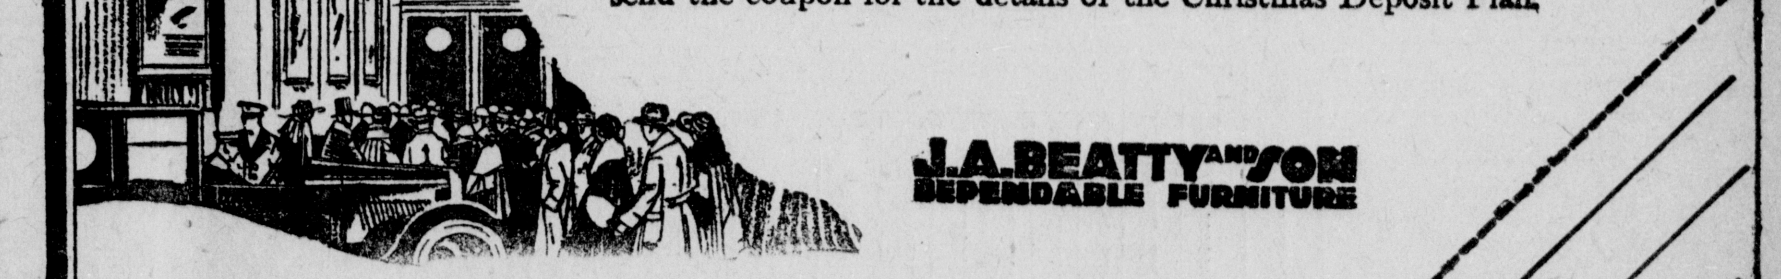

TODAY'S popular young folks don't want to dance to the hackneyed tunes of last month. They want the newest—the latest—the best song hits. They want their music direct from Broadway. That's why they all insist upon the New Edison.

Edison is always ten days to three months ahead with the popular music. The "Edison Bunch on Broadway" gets every new song, musical comedy and dance-hit the moment it breaks. Mr. Edison's own marvelous new process of manufacturing makes them into technically perfect RE-CREATIONS in the fastest possible time.

Tests of direct comparison have proved that the New Edison RE-CREATES these hits with Broadway's true pep and flavor,—because there is no difference between the original music and the RE-CREATED music.

SUES B. & O. ROAD
FOR DAMAGES OF
$15,000 FOR INJURY

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company is named defendant in a suit for $15,000 damages alleging personal injuries, brought by Logan Nickell in Common Pleas court here. The plaintiff states that January 25, 1921, while he was employed as a section hand for the defendant company in Greene County, he was engaged with other employes in unloading a car of ties, when one fell underneath the car.

The petition states that it was the plaintiff's duty and that he was ordered to remove the tie, and that he requested other employes not to throw any ties out of the car until he had removed it and had gotten to a place of safety. He charges that one or more other employes carelessly and negligently threw off another tie, striking him on the back, and knocking him down an embankment of five or six feet. The plaintiff asserts the tie was eight feet long, seven or eight inches thick and weighed 100 to 175 pounds, and that he was struck by the end of the tie, which then rolled down the embankment and fell on his leg. He declares that he was severely, seriously and permanently injured by the accident, the muscles of the back being seriously bruised, and that these muscles support the back. In addition to these bruises the plaintiff says he suffers from rheumatism and neuritis which has settled in his back because of the injury and that he is permanently disabled from his usual labor. He asks for $15,000 damages and the costs. Attorney C. L. Darlington and F. L. Johnson represent the plaintiff.

MALCOLM AND JOAN SPEND THE EVENING WITH MAR-THA

CHAPTER 116

Malcolm Frost really loved the self-willed Joan, really intended to be patient and gentle with her. He knew how she had been brought up, how she had been indulged, and allowed to follow her own sweet will. He determined over and over that he would not judge her as he would the girls at home, yet he found himself doing so, wondering if Gloria Freeman would do as Joan did—erect what Hortense Thompson would think of the free and easy ways of the studio.

That Joan was impatient of reproach he very well knew. That she had snapped him up shortly several times when he attempted it, was a warning that he tried to heed, but which he found difficult. That other boys or men should make so free with his Joan, wasn't to be calmly endured—always.

Martha and her professor had returned from their wedding trip, and Malcolm and Joan had spent a long, happy evening with them in their little flat up near the college. It was all so cozy and comfortable, they were both so happy, that Malcolm was even more eager for Joan to marry him soon so that they too might have a little place of their own.

"It is different from the studio life," Martha said, "I am afraid Joan would miss the boys and girls running in and out. It is quiet, and perhaps would be a bit lonely if I didn't keep so busy all the time. But you see we haven't much money, so I have to do the work, then I try to help the professor in the evening. He is doing extra work at the college."

"Martha's voice was so loving, so proud when she spoke of the 'professor' one could readily imagine she meant 'her professor' and she was so daintily homelike in her cotton housedress, that Malcolm thought he never would ask for greater happiness than to be with Joan in just the same simple way.

"I don't believe Joan would be lonely—would you?" Malcolm asked in reply to what Martha had said. "One can never tell until she tries." "I am not particularly domestic," "Neither was I," Martha rejoined. "But when it is all your own, when you both work together why it makes all the difference in the world. One likes to do things one would have hated before. Being married seems to change one's viewpoint about many things."

Malcolm thought Martha's frankness delightful and told her so.

"Why shouldn't one say they are happy? We love each other, and it seems to me that is the greatest thing in the world—the love two people have for each other."

"You two are getting terribly sentimental," Joan broke in. "You'll make Malcolm expect so much that he'll be terribly disappointed in me. I'm afraid I'm not as pliable as you are, Martha."

"You will be when you and Malcolm are together."

"I haven't your faith," Joan answered a bit wistfully. She loved Malcolm, yet she could not easily hear any criticism from him no matter how gently made; neither could she endure to be questioned.

"You see I haven't been used to it," was her invariable excuse when she resented what he said.

Yet how happy they were as they went home from Martha's; how gleefully they chatted about the pleasant evening they had spent, Martha's love and admiration for the professor—her love for her!

"We shall be just as happy," Joan's Malcolm said as he patted her hand resting on his arm. They walked to the subway, it was a lovely night, and they had so much to talk about it was late too, and not many on the train so they continued their confidences even in that noisy cavern of speed.

When Malcolm left her he said: "It must be soon, Joan. When will your book be finished?" "It's coming on fine! Won't Mum-sie be surprised?"

In a corner of the Strayer living room, a large red "chimney" was arranged, artificial snow being used effectively, a symbol of the approach of Yuletide and gift-giving and where the guests placed their gifts, upon their arrival. Miss Fry received many lovely gifts.

CHARGES MALICIOUS PROSECUTION IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

William M. Finley, who opened an office to practice veterinary surgery here early in October, and was arrested here for London authorities within a few days after he arrived, has brought suit for $25,000 damages in common pleas court, Columbus, against John A. Howe, proprietor of the Howe motor car company, 1158 West Broad street, Columbus, claiming malicious prosecution.

The suit was filed in Columbus, Saturday morning. The petition, declares that Howe filed charges against Finley in the court of a Madison county justice of the peace, July 6, alleging theft of a tractor, that he was arrested October 6, indicted October 26, and was acquitted of the charge November 7. He claims as a result of the legal action that he was damaged to the extent of $25,000.

Finley came here early in October, after having been in Jamestown for sometime. He rented a barn in an alley in the rear of West Third street, between Detroit and King, and established an office at 38 East Second Street, advertising his location in the papers. He is married and has several children and brought his family to this city when he came.

October 6, Deputy Sheriff George Birch arrested Finley for the Madison county authorities and he was returned to London to face the charge, although local authorities did not know what he was wanted for. According to his petition, he evidently defeated the action in the Madison county courts but has never returned here although he gave his residence as Xenia on the petition.

RE-HEARING DENIED.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The petition of the railroads for a re-hearing of the case involving a reduction of rates in grain, grain products and hay in the western and mountain Pacific groups today was denied by the interstate commerce commission.

COMMITTEE WILL CONDUCT DRIVE FOR NEW BUILDING

Plans for the drive for a fund to erect a building to replace Shorter Hall, combination dormitory and recitation hall, at Wilberforce University, destroyed by fire last week, will be in charge of a committee appointed by President J. A. Gregg.

The committee is composed of F. A. McGinnis, chairman; Charles S. Smith, secretary; Dr. George Genderson, Dean George F. Woodson, Prof. J. D. Russell, S. Jones, C. E. Barnett, Miss Hallie Q. Brown, Miss B. Sanders and Mrs. J. T. Washington. This committee will formulate plans for the campaign along lines outlined by President Gregg and endorsed by the general faculty.

Through the destruction of Shorter Hall, the already crowded dormitory conditions at the school have been made worse and it is imperative that the plans for a new building be carried to a successful conclusion immediately in order to have the new building ready for occupancy next fall.

At a meeting held, Wednesday afternoon, when school was suspended, the campaign was given a rousing send-off by faculty and students and more than $2,000 was subscribed and pledged. Bishops J. H. Jones and B. F. Lee, and W. A. Anderson and others were among the speakers at the meeting, which was held in the Galloway Hall auditorium.

Bishop Jones, who is chairman of the executive board, expects to have a meeting and arrange to submit the plans and cost estimates of the buildings very soon.

JAMESTOWN HIGH CLAIMS VICTORY

Jamestown High School basketball team is claiming a victory over Yellow Springs High in spite of an argument that resulted over the score of the game played at Jamestown, Friday night.

It is said that when the game ended the scoreboard kept for the benefit of the spectators showed the score 21 to 20 in favor of Jamestown, but that the scorebooks kept by the official scorers showed the score to be 20-20. Jamestown contended that the keeper of the scoreboard was right and claimed the victory.

Spectators say the confusion resulted when a Jamestown player attempted to toss a foul ball, and missed. They claim that a Jamestown player knocked the ball in after the foul toss had gone astray, making a field goal and adding two points instead of one, but that the official scorekeeper did not see the goal and credited it as a foul, knotting the count. Jamestown fans say their team agreed to play an extra five minutes, but that Yellow Springs refused to play an added session, and Coach Wallace called his team from the floor. The lineup and summary:

Jamestown (21) Yellow Springs (20) Early If Donley Ferguson C. Semler Rockhold C. Semler Burr J. G. Northup St. John P. Semler Field Goals: Ferguson 6, Early 1, Rockhold 1, St. John 1, C. Semler 3, Donley 4, Bausman 2. One field goal claimed by Jamestown, is in dispute. Foul Goals: Ferguson 2, Bausman 2. Referee: Hilton, Ohio State.

CONDUCT SEARCH FOR TWO ESCAPED STATE PRISONERS

Police and railroad detectives here were conducting a search Friday night for two state penitentiary convicts, who escaped from the state's prison farm at London.

It was thought that the men might have caught a Pennsylvania train and come in this direction for which reason all railroad policemen were warned to be on the lookout for the men and city police were furnished with a description and asked to assist in the search.

All trains coming through London in this direction were halted at Florence, and thoroughly searched for the missing convicts. The men wore their stripes, but had the convict clothes covered up with overall suits. No trace of them was found here.

AUXILIARY WATER PLANT ALL READY

The new auxiliary water plant of the municipal water department, is in perfect working order.

This was proven when an official test of the plant, called plant No. 2, and located on Cincinnati Avenue, on the site of the old Cincinnati Avenue station, was tested in the presence of city officials Friday afternoon.

All of the present members of the city commission and the three newly-elected members, who take office the first of the year, were in the party that inspected the plant. The electric power pumps were turned on and allowed to pump for some time in proof of the efficiency of the plant.

While on their inspection trip the commissioners and city officials also visited the water plant near Old Town and witnessed it in operation.

Plant No. 2 on Cincinnati Avenue was constructed as an auxiliary plant only and will be used as an emergency station, in case of fire.

Two basketball teams from McKinley Jun or H. H. School, representing the seventh and eighth grades will play the seventh and eighth grade teams of Yellow Springs at Kelly Hall, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Saturday night.

The local players and the fans who will accompany the teams will leave Xenia for Yellow Springs at six o'clock, and because of the interest attached to the double header by McKinley pupils, it is expected that a number of rooters will be on hand. The local teams are coached by Austin Black, head of the Junior High manual training department.

BUSINESS RAPIDLY ADJUSTING ITSELF

Cleveland, Dec. 17.—"I can say with confidence that the fundamental conditions of American business are rapidly adjusting themselves, already most lines are pretty well liquidated; the supply of credit in many centers has risen and we are apparently approaching an extended period of easier money rates," said J. R. Nett, President of the Union Trust company, of Cleveland today. His band is the largest financial institution between New York and Chicago.

ALLIES ANSWER GERMANY'S NOTE

Paris, Dec. 17.—The interallied reparations commission today sent a reply to Germany's note announcing she could not pay the January and February indemnity installments. The commission said the allies could not consider Germany's situation until Berlin states the exact amount of currency Germany can turn over and the plans that are made for the future. The commission says it is surprised at a "prominent clergyman of Evans" the generalities and unprecision of the German announcement.

CHINESE HAND LAUNDRY

THE SHORTEST WAY IS NOT ALWAYS THE BEST WAY!

This holds true in the laundry business, for although there are shorter ways of laundering, the hand process is the best and most satisfactory. Garments are under constant inspection during practically the entire process and naturally are given more attention and care. Give the hand laundry process a trial, THEN COMPARE THE WORK.

FOUR SUPER WORLD POWERS SIGN PEACE TREATY.

The Four-Power "Treaty of Washington," designed to keep the peace in the Pacific, and formally approved and signed by the Conference delegations of the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan, will not go immediately to the Senate.

President Harding will not hurry its submission, and the treaty doubtless will repose in the White House until its companion pieces, the Yap treaty between the United States and Japan the naval agreement and the China settlement, expected as an outcome of the Conference, are approved and ready for senatorial consideration.

The President apparently has decided to present the Senate with the final and complete deliberations of the Conference, convinced nothing to be gained by rushing the treaties piece-meal.

The full contents of the treaty, it was observed officially at the White House, have been made known to the Senate, together with the American reservations on the mandated islands of the Pacific. For that reason there is no hurry on the part of the Chief Executive to rush matters.

The formal signing of the treaty took place at the State Department with ceremony both quite simple and as secret as the manner in which the pact was negotiated. Only the delegates of the four nations, grouped around a long ebony table in Secretary Hughes' ante-room, participated or witnessed the affixing of signatures.

The American representatives were the first to sign. They were followed by the delegates of Great Britain, France and Japan in the order named. All the plenipotentiaries of the four nations were present, except M. Albert Sarraut and M. Jules Jusserand, of the French delegation, who were in New York. Rene Viviani alone signed for France, and space was left on the document for the signature of M. Sarraut and M. Jusserand who will affix their names. The official copy of the treaty carried the terms printed in English and French in parallel columns.

CHINESE HEARKENED BY NINE-POWER AGREEMENT ON INDEPENDENCE.

The announcement that Mr. Hughes will supplement the four-power pact with a similar nine-power agreement, in which China would be asked to become a member, sets that vast nation back to a calmer mind than she has been in, of late.

Although the exact character of the proposed pact is not known to the public, it is a fairly safe guess the agreement will take the form of reaffirmation of John Hay's open-door policy, with more clearly defined statements and a larger binding force for the observation of the territorial integrity and political independence of the Chinese Republic by the Powers participating in it.

After twenty-one years of trial, during which the Hay's policy has suffered not a few violations, partly because of foreign aggression upon China and partly because of our own weakness, it is becoming increasingly necessary that the Powers get together and define clearly their positions in China in an open covenant.

It is gratifying to note that in such a vitally important pact as this the United States again has taken the initiative. This country has been most insistent upon the faithful execution of the open-door policy on behalf of China, and those efforts have earned for her the everlasting gratitude of the Chinese people.

C. W. MORSE, THE VETERAN SHIP-BUILDER, CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Charles W. Morse was arrested Tuesday on a warrant charging embezzlement and conspiracy. The veteran shipbuilder and financier pleaded not guilty and produced two bondsmen, who gave $50,000 bail for his appearance when wanted.

Morse appeared voluntarily at the office of Isaac R. Hitt, United States Commissioner, where the warrant was served. He was accompanied by his attorney, Wilton J. Lambert, and two of his sons, Erwin A. and Harry Morse.

The action came as a surprise to officials, who had predicted no attempt to arrest Morse would be made until the District Grand Jury had announced the result of its investigation into alleged irregularities in wartime shipbuilding contracts. Those officials expected Morse, after returning from Europe voluntarily at the request of Attorney General Daugherty, would be permitted to remain in Washington undisturbed, with a gentleman's agreement with counsel to insure his appearance. The action it was indicated, was decided upon at a conference between officials of the Shipping Board and the Department of Justice.

The warrant charges Morse with having conspired with his sons, Erwin A. and Harry Morse, and others, to cheat and defraud a corporation in which the United States is a stockholder, namely, the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation. Further charges were to the effect that Morse submitted false bills and accounts in connection with contracts with the board.

Fatteninf Winter Foods.

Christmas season is a bad time for the woman who has made up her mind to reduce. All Christmas delicacies seem to be fattening, and the spirit of the entire season, that of eating as much as one can possibly manage.

First of all everyone gives candy. Everyone eats candy. Now one chocolate cream has a caloric value of 100. It may be that in order to reduce you should not eat more than 1500 or 2000 calories of food every day. If you ate 15 or 20 chocolate creams and I have seen many women eat that much or more during a matinee, you will eaten your entire days allowance of nourishment. One pound of chocolates has a caloric value of 5625 more than two day's nourishment you see.

Turkey, itself, is not so fattening, but gravy is. Thick soup is very fattening and the delicious turkey stuffing which no one can resist will help tip the scales and add a few pounds. Every Christmas dinner has potatoes, which are forbidden the stout women, usually also yams or sweet potatoes, which are doubly fattening and twice as fattening as that again when they are cooked with butter and sugar.

The Christmas dinner usually goes on to mince pie, plum pudding or ice cream, sometimes to all three. These are the three most fattening desserts. I fairly tremble to tell you how high their caloric value is. But an average helping of anyone of them is at least 350 calories.

And the dinner usually does not stop at that, for nuts and raisins come upon the table and no women can possibly know how many of these she is eating because she simply sits there and nibbles while she is busy talking about cousin Jane's new baby and what happened to poor old aunt Sue.

A Sick Worried Mother--Children often come from school or playing outdoors and develop nits in their hair. It's annoying, but it can be cured easily. Rub the hair and scalp with kerosene and tie up all night. This kills the nits, but not the eggs. If you don't get these out they will hatch and you'll have your old trouble again.

To get rid of these--first wash off the kerosene with hot water and soap. Dry, then wet all over with vinegar. This softens the curious mucleage which attaches the eggs to the hair. Now go through the hair again and again with a fine tooth comb wet with vinegar. You'll have no trouble after that.

Worried--If you have a dry skin, use a cold cream containing olive or almond oil. For the dry scalp, use sulphur ointment. Rub this on the night before you shampoo, and rub in a little after the shampoo. You probably need more exercise and more fresh air than you are getting. The digestion as well as the complexion will improve, if you get outdoors a lot and get plenty of sleep.

TAXES ARE STILL IN FORCE AVERS REVENUE AGENT

Cincinnati, Dec. 17.--The following statement is issued by Collector of Internal Revenue, Charles M. Dean, Cincinnati.

"Enactment of new revenue legislation has brought to the offices of Collectors of Internal Revenue a flood of inquiries regarding the various provisions.

"Many persons are under the impression that the taxes on ice cream, soft drinks, etc., monthly returns of which are required, have been repealed with the enactment of the new act. These taxes remain in force until the end of the calendar year 1921.

"No change is made in the tax on admissions, except that after January 1, 1922 there will be no tax where admission is 10 cents or less. Effective Jan. 1, 1922, the following taxes are also abolished, on "The tax on parcel post packages is eliminated effective January 1, 1922.

"The new act provides that no taxpayer shall be subjected to unnecessary examinations or investigations, and only one inspection of his books of accounts shall be made for each taxable year unless the taxpayer requests otherwise or the Commissioner notifies the taxpayer in writing that an additional inspection is necessary.

PICK SITES FROM AIR

Columbus, Dec. 17.--Believing that aerial photos will be invaluable in locating new factory sites, because they would show railroad tracks and highways, Service Director Duffy announced that he is planning to arrange with officers from McCook Field, Dayton, for a series of pictures of Columbus to be taken from an airplane.

MY NEIGHBORS.

My neighbors all are splendid jays, a credit to their race; and evermore I sing their praise upon the market-place. And so I've made the discords cease that used to jar my nerves, and any gent who longs for peace must emulate my curves. Time was when I would pass along the evil tales I heard, and say that Johnson's life was wrong, Jones was a wicked bird; it tired me that I must endure Jack Bunkum and his gall; and sinful motives, I was sure, inspired my neighbors all. It is not strange that men grew sick of hearing talk like that, and now and then a well-aimed brick would spoil my Sunday hat. And when I found I had no friend in all the region nigh, I reared my person up on end, and asked the reason why. The reason was not hard to find; I saw it, through my tears; and I remarked, "I have been blind and batty all these years. I have refused to see the good in any human skate, and now, throughout the neighborhood men sing the hymn of hate. They throw their tin cans in my yard, they sic dogs on my cow, and I, a fat and futile bard, can see the reason now." Then I reformed, and on my lyre I made a solemn pledge that I'd find something to admire in all men, and not hedge. So I began to roundly boost Tom, Dick, James, John and Jake, and neighbors bless me when I roost, and praise me when I wake.

Monday Matinee and Night

If you could see leaping from script to screen the actual characters of a wonderful story of the love of two men and a girl away in Canada's grandest crags, and whirl with them through action-drama more real and vivid than words could ever make it, wouldn't you greet that picture as a splendid exception? Then you'll agree "The Sky Pilot" is one.

THE DISTASTEFUL THING

There is one thing we all learn quite early--that it is not easy to live!

Neither ease nor pleasure are assets of happiness in themselves. All too often they prove liabilities.

Life is a vexed affair. It is a mixture out of which we must select those things which shall make us happiest and most useful. Like a ravelled ball of twine it comes to us--to unravel and to weave again into something that others may take up after us and carry on to better ways.

Character is strengthened and made vital and substantial by facing distasteful things.

A great college president called his son to him and asked him what he desired to do more than anything else, he boy replied, "I want you to give it up and make and make other plans." said the father. Though the young man was puzzled and disappointed, he respected the wisdom of his father and did as he desired. Later the father explained. He wanted his son to face disappointment. The father long ago died, but the son today occupies a high position of trust and honor. Learn to look disappointment in the face.

James, the wise psychologist, once gave as one of the most important rules of character building, to do at least one thing each day that you do not want to do. In the fashioning of the will, there could be no better training.

Soiled hands may be quickly washed--but a soiled and cluttered mentality will press shadows into the healthiest heart and darken its days. There is always an end to every distasteful task. To go through with it is like going over a muddy stretch of road on to one that is paved and smooth. And such a thrill one gets!

Appreciation of life's beauties can only come to its finest and fullest through passing over the rough and rocky ways that lead to them

YOUR CHRISTMAS AND THEIRS!

WITH the Christmas season rapidly approaching, the thoughts of people in all christian countries of the world, revolve about a joyous time of giving and receiving in commemoration of the birth of Christ.

Yours may be the joyous yuletide, secure in the comforts of a good home, where the hand of actual want has never been felt. Yours may be the gifts of a luxurious character, which Santa may lay at your hearth on Christmas Eve, but what about those, especially the children, who are touched with poverty; who, today, lack the common necessities of life, which you take as a matter of course. What of them? THAT IS WHERE YOUR CHRISTMAS OPPORTUNITY LIES.

There are many homes in Xenia where there will be no Christmas this year, unless you help give it to them. There are many little children, who with heavy hearts, wonder why "Santa" passes them by. There are hundreds of opportunities in Xenia, which offer a chance to experience the feeling that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

A partial list has been compiled by the Social Service League, of families to whom you might bring Christmas, who will not otherwise have the bare necessities of life on that day. Will you help them? The Social Service League stands ready to guide your endeavors to worthy families. Particulars of each case can be learned by a call at their headquarters.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 1 Father and mother and three children. Father's wages $14.22 per week. Per the budget for dependent families tested out by the Ohio Institute for Public Efficiency, this family should have $24 per week. They lack $9.78 per week, or $29.34 per month. Rent MUST be paid. Therefore they must cut down on food and clothing, which means children must go to school poorly nourished and thinly clad, which further means children growing up with stunted bodies and minds, which makes shiftless citizens and proves an injury to your town and mine. In this family, two boys, 12 and 16 years of age need, each, a pair of trousers and coat or sweater and hose. The girl 10 years old needs underwear and a coat or sweater. Will you buy these and make these children happy?

OPPORTUNITY NO. 2 ---Father does out door work. Has only part time work. Eight people to feed and clothe. Six children under eleven years of age--could you do it on $2.40 per day? Family worthy, wife frail--she wished to help and one week got two washings to do, but has been ill ever since doing them, three weeks ago. Nineteen garments are needed to make these children comfortable

OPPORTUNITY NO. 3 ---Girl 20 years of age. Paralyzed. Must sit at home alone all day while parents and older sister work and younger children are at school. She ASKS for nothing but NEEDS cheer. She does fancy work. Articles to embroider would please her. This is a most worthy family.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 4 ---Eight in this family. Only one wage earner. The father works every day but lacks $13 per week by the Ohio Institute of Public Efficiency, of having enough to buy the necessities of life. Fourteen garments would help this family. The mother asks only a wash board from Santa Claus.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 5 ---Seven in this family. The father disabled. Two young men in this family but they work outside and have only part time work. This family lives in a barn, has not the money to pay the rent. The mother is broken down, yet after having reared 15 children, must go out and scrub and clean all day long to clothe her three children yet in school. This family needs many things.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 6 ---We have many mothers with large families and no sewing machine. If Santa brings you a new one won't you bring your old one to the Social Service League?

OPPORTUNITY NO. 7 ---There are dozens of families in Xenia with little children who need milk daily. A quart or even a pint of milk daily for a month would be a wonderful Christmas gift to one of these children from you.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 8 ---Many aged people are living in poverty, some bedridden and some blind, to whom a small gift would mean much.

These are but a few of the many Christmas opportunities you will find by calling the Social Service League, or by going to their office in the City Building.

Will You Help Bring Cheer To Many Needy Xenia Families?

Dr. Yui is general secretary of the national committee of the Y. M. C. A. in China, and has 348 Y. M. C. A. secretaries from various countries under him. Sunday afternoon, he will address a men's meeting at the Springfield Y. M. C. A. MOLASSES USED
AS FUEL FOR AUTOS
IN CUBA IS WORD

Philadelphia, Dec. 17.—"I'm out of gas. Let me have five gallons of molasses this time."

If the owner of a car were to make this remark at an American service station, there would be a hasty phone call for the police patrol.

In Cuba, the same request would merely provoke a smile and secure for the driver five gallons of the automobile fuel now used in the majority of the Havana cars.

Charles E. Hires, Jr., of the Charles E. Hires Company, Philadelphia, who has lately returned from the company's sugar plantation in the island, says that the passing of the eighteenth amendment automatically destroyed Cuba's market for millions of gallons of molasses. This molasses was formerly refined in America and distributed to the brewing companies. When the brewers ceased to brew, molasses became a drug on the Cuban market temporarily.

Now a large percentage is being converted into denatured alcohol and forms the base of a new automobile fuel used by practically all of the cheaper and many of the more expensive cars in Cuba. This fuel sells for 23 cents a gallon against fifty cents a gallon for gasoline.

"In spite of the bottom having dropped out of the sugar market, and of prohibition in the United States," remarked Mr. Hires, "there are seemingly as many cars on the streets of Havana as there were a year or two ago. Cuba has found a market for her molasses crop. What does not go into automobile fuel, is turned into pure alcohol and shipped to South America where there is no eighteenth amendment. If Cuba can work out her excess sugar problem as satisfactorily she has nothing to worry about."

SAYS DOPE RING
WILL BE REVEALED

Toledo, Dec. 17.—One of the most extensive dope rings ever operated in Ohio, with headquarters in Lima, will be revealed when suspects now under surveillance are arrested and brought to trial, Federal Narcotic Agent E. H. Staley, announced. Staley said he hoped to complete his investigations soon.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of several persons, Staley said, and their apprehension will take place soon. His discoveries have brought to light ramifications of a plot which has proved starting even to federal agents because of the large scale upon which it was operated. Staley said.

D. A. R. LUNCHEON LOVELY AFFAIR

The Elk's Club was the scene of a lovely function, Friday afternoon, when the members of the Catherine Green Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and their invited guests were entertained at luncheon, the occasion being the twenty seventh anniversary of the organization, and also the anniversary of that historical event, The Boston Tea Party.

Covers were laid for the fifty guests who were received during the afternoon, at prettily appointed tables in the club dining room. Large bouquets of pink and white sweet peas were used as the centerpiece of each table. A four course luncheon was served.

Following the luncheon, the guests retired to the social room of the club, where Mrs. J. B. Foraker, of Cincinnati, state chairman of the George Washington Memorial Association, gave an interesting talk, upon the work of that organization.

Mrs. A. C. Messenger, State chairman of the Caroline Scott Harrison Memorial association, presided at the meeting. The American Flag which is always upon prominent display at each of the Chapter meetings, was used as the only decoration of the room.

An especially enjoyable feature of the meeting was two vocal numbers, "My Little House," and "The Old Road," by Mrs. William H. McGervey, state secretary.

of Public Instruction Reigel. The County Orchestra played a number of selections.

The College closed Thursday, for the three weeks Christmas vacation.
